Obituary.

Ann Styles departed this life Jan. 20, 1889, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ira Flanders, at Paw Paw, aged 84 years, 6 months and 8 days. Deceased was mother of 12 children, 9 of whom are living. She has gone to her Savior, whom she loved.

If you own a few foot lot it's not so much to boast of in the way of width on the surphage, but it goes down 4,000 the surphage, but it goes down 4,000 miles deep till you meet the man half way that owns the ground lot on the other side. Just think of it. Take my advice an' buy a few feet all round you an' 4,000 miles under you and set out in Vicks' plants an' seeds an' it'll be better. than puttin' your money out at a hundred per cent., to say nothin of the health an the pleasure you'll get. Yes, gardenin pays. Ask James Vick. Seedsman, of Rochester, N. Y., for his dred per cent., to say nothin' of the circular, and see.

Circuit Court.

Our report of the proceedings of the circuit court last week closed with the Pratz case on trial. The jury, evidently, took the girl's testimony with several grains of allowance-to the extent, in fact, of disbelieving it. Respondent was acquitted.

The next case was that of Eldridge vs. Sherman, tried once before in the circuit and sent back by the supreme court for a new trial. It involved the custody of two or three head of horses and that all persons interested in said estate are remainded to the court three head of horses. Sherman, tried once before in the which Eldridge had taken on chattel mortgage and which Sherman had surreptitiously removed from his custody. Eldridge was awarded judgment for
